New York Tribune

torials—Advertisements
Member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5, 1922

SUBSCRIPTION RATES - By mail, including 10.00 5.00 4.00 2.25 CANADIAN RATES $6.00 $1.00 5.00 .85 2.75 .50 purchase reschandise advertised in THE teen capital ships called with sheebute safety—for it dissatisfact in any case THE THBUNE guaranty yeur money back upon request. No red guilbiling. We refund promptly it the

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Repentant Bolsheviki with shore services. Though Lloyd George secured a It is true that 65,000 men would on his hands and because Russia 000 to 67,000. under communism has neither credit But how about the special duty Tile layer and helper....$14.00 $24.00 71 merely defers communism.

little to offer in trade, and hence ed would be 133,731.

they tell him to do? prediction. Who has a right to say, if the pressure were removed and a free Russian Accordance and a save a few million dollars by skele-tonizing the treaty fleet. free Russian Assembly held, that there would not arise a new and better power? The great mass of Rus-history demand the retirement of industry. those who have demonstrated their These suggestions, however, have visit New York in May to discuss do with the present settlement. the question of Mexico's foreign Before there can be talk of a perloans with the representatives of manent governmental agency with them. In the mean time Thomas W. there must be an end to the present Lamont is sailing for Paris to deadlock. Information is needed as discuss this question with the to all phases of the industry. European banking groups before he Charges by both sides must be an- tinue in business on a five-cent fare To the Editor of The Tribune. returns to negotiate with De la swered. Is the union deliberately some of the surface lines have intro-Huerta. This news is the first defi- trying to force the employment of duced, in certain hours, the one-man Tribune also, I take the liberty of saynite indication in recent months more men than the industry can car. The motorman tends to the rethat the Obregon government ap- use? Are the operators' profits ex- ceipt of fares and opens and closes Ross in this morning's issue is in preciates the necessity of doing all orbitant? Is overproduction exces- the door while people are embarking exact accordance with my views on the credit abroad. Heretofore there has Detailed information as to these and door is opened. credit abroad. Heretorore there has betained information as to these and learning to do with the case. Prohibition is the law much better control." been several conferences none of before any plans can be made for suburban districts, where traffic is of our land. Our duty as citizens should them seemed to have been marked by ultimate stabilization.

Refunding Mexico's Debt

First to Last-the Truth: News-Edi- It sincerely wishes to regain the based. financial confidence of other nations "Nationalization," in whatever vance in fares. nection with the agreement of the soon be reached. oil men and the Mexican government in regard to the payment of taxes. "The government has kept faith," said he; "the oil agreements

Keelhauling the Navy

Mr. Mondell said on Monday, after 39.00 1.50 a talk with the President, that the cost of building, and as a cost of building as a cost of buildin Intered at the Postoffice at New York as Second number, he explained, would provide makes labor disputes continuous.

American navy consisting of only counsel for the Lockwood committee: eighteen capital ships? The question e Associated Press is excusively entitled to use for republication of all news dispatches ted to it or not otherwise credited in this cannot operate unless they are sup-All rights of republication of all other matter ported by auxiliaries, and the capital herein also are reserved and auxiliary fleets cannot be maintained unless they are linked up four-to-one vote of confidence, and be more than enough to operate the his critics are once more driven to main fighting fleet. This fleet would their holes, his speech lacked his consist, according to plans worked out by naval experts, of eighteen Foreman Mr. George made a weak defense capital ships, twenty-two cruisers, Journeyman ... of his Russian policy. He has just five plane carriers, eighty-eight de- Heating and Piping Contractors' Association read many months ago. More recent is 44,258. This figure seems to have utterances of Lenine, recanting his been taken as the base for Mr. Monthisher and helper, per 47,00 144,00 206 week. attention altogether. The Russian man ashore for every two affoat, setter and helper..... $14.50 $22.00 the personnel total would be 66,387; Ornamental Bronze and Iron Association altered are his tactics. He yields to mittee has just increased its personcapitalism because he has a famine nel allotment for 1922-'23 from 65,- Painters stolen jewels and sables and sacred personnel affoat would therefore rise shortage. vessels taken from churches and to 89,154. With one man ashore to synagogues, Bolshevik Russia has every two affoat, the personnel need-

It will not be practicable to main-Conditions in Russia being as tain the navy at that strength next Thomas H. Dickinson in his striking year. The department has asked With the gun he can cow or kill his articles in The Tribune describes for a minimum of 90,000 men; but them, the question at Genoa, if we with 90,000 the treaty fleet would would help Russia, is whether the still be considerably below strength. Bolshevik group, having made a A great many vessels would be laid tragic failure, is to be trusted up for lack of crews and the battle further. Does a verbally repentant | fleet's complement would have to be wolf make a good sheep dog? cut down in order to man the auxil-Should the patient Russian peasant | iaries. Reducing the enlisted perlearn that the only way he can get sonnel to 65,000 or 67,000 would, in seed corn consigned to the care of fact, compel low-pressure operation resourceful. Rigid enforcement of That song you sang at fall of his Moscow masters is by doing as of the navy, with attendant deterioration in training, a general lower- the visitors within the city's gates of It is said that the Soviet govern- ing of efficiency and an interruption ment is now Russia's only center of of instruction in battle fleet hanauthority—that should it fall there would be chaos. But this is mere dling and strategy. It is utterly false national economy to try to who could not be sent to the penitenslans know what is the matter— prominently the loose statements of criminals of the advantage of poshave seen communism face to face. John L. Lewis before the House session of transport for a getaway. eral Pershing. Why assume that the 200,000 mem- Committee on Labor to the effect This may for a time result in annoybers of the Communist party have a that "nationalization" of the coal inmonopoly of all the organizing tal- dustry may prove essential. The public spirited enough to submit to If a tax on the sale of beer would State and the Russian Soviet Republic, to have large chunks of psychology. Sunday-school superintendent at a ularity has been essential to enduring the device of the line of the l ent? The likelihood of Russia being idea, vaguely worded, suggests publisspection if the inspection is for the pay the nation's debt we are wonderregenerated while the Leninites are lic ownership, but Mr. Lewis does purpose of ending the crime wave. in authority is slim. For many rea- not mean that. He explains that If every car parked on side streets sons the Bolshevik group, no matter "the idea of government operation, were inspected and the occupant what some of its leaders say, cannot as the railroads were operated, is made to account for his right to be repugnant." Instead, he mentions there, many bandits hurrying from Everywhere is a great longing for the formation of an agency some- a hold-up or a burglary would rush Tribune headed "Ireland's Tripartite with unbounded delight, as he is a sons alike of common sense and of merce Commission to supervise the incapacity. Russia's misery is due no bearing upon the immediate is- stolen cars in their raids on New to a particular economic system. It sue. Indefinite and lacking precision York, but the police have from time must go. The change should scarcely of meaning, they serve to mislead to time organized city-wide searches fusing the issue than to clarifying it. coal commission can help solve the ous and better organized search than apprehension. problem of the strike. Both refer to some form of machinery which may have to be established to pre-clever than the oldtime bandit. He The Mexican Secretary of the vent abuses by miners or operators has, however, two great advantages Treasury, Señor de la Huerta, will in the future. They have nothing to the banking groups that financed power to determine rates and wages is power to re-establish Mexico's sive, and, if so, what is the remedy? and debarking. Only the forward enforcement of the Eighteenth Amend-successful efforts to meet the ques- The immediate problem is to set- streets, however, it is dangerous. The press of this city has a golder tion squarely. Certain groups in the the strike. If this cannot be ac- The motorman cannot keep his mind opportunity if it could only see its Mexico, seeing their country faced complished by direct negotiations on two jobs and do either of them way to training its guns on the enemy with defaulted interest amounting between the operators and miners it adequately. Furthermore it requires instead of giving comfort. to about $111,000,000 on direct ob- will have to be brought about by twice as long to admit and discharge ligations and about $71,000,000 on outside pressure. In the mean time, passengers through the same door. indirect obligations, hoped that some however, there is much work for a The experiment now in progress is settlement might be reached which commission of investigation, com- additional evidence of the necessity would relieve them of the burden posed of trained men familiar with of the immediate adoption of a gen-and realizes that the adjustment of form Mr. Lewis may conceive it, is the debt is indispensable. Perhaps not the issue. The less Mr. Lewis the best evidence of its good faith and the gentlemen in Congress talk Lenine's, that is dangerous. is in the testimony of Edward about it the greater are the chances L. Doheny, now in Mexico in con- that a settlement of the strike will

Irrelevant

"Doctored" Building Bills Neither rents nor building costs will come down as long as contracmade last fall have been observed." tors insist on exacting undue profits on the labor they employ. Charging a client $10 for a day's labor that costs the builder $6 is doubly harma talk with the President, that the ful. First, it increases unfairly the adequate complements for the eigh-The following table of rates of the same labor has been recently But are we hereafter to have an published by Samuel Untermyer,

Contractors' Protectly	e Ass	ociatio	11
		Chad
	Paid	Cus-	P.C.
Class of Labor.	Men.	tomers	. Inc.
Common laborers	$6.00	$10.00	66
Rockmen	6.00	10.00	66
Blaster, per week	45.00	72.00	6.0 Blacksmith (inc. fuel and forge)	7.00	11.00	5.7
Blacksmith's helper	5.00	8.00	6.0
Watchmen	6:00	10.00	66
Marble Industry Employ	ers'	Associat	lon
Building foreman	10.00	$16.25	6.2

read, it appears, the recanting speech stroyers and nine submarines. The Journeyman steamfitter and steamfitter's helper, $12.00 $22.00 83 of Lenine which the world generally complement of men for these vessels Association of Architectural Iron Workers Mosaic Employers' Association ciples are unchanged. All he has and the House Appropriations Com ltered are his testies. He yields to mittee has just increased its name.

| Draftsman, per week. ..$60.00 $147.00 128
| Men (unclassified), per hr ... 79 3.00 278
| Foundry moiders, per hr ... 99 3.00 238 Master Painters' Association

Tile and Grate and Mantel Association

nor goods to buy essential supplies squadrons apart from the fighting This table tells its own story. No from other countries. Confiscation fleet and the many subsidiary ves- one denies to the builder the right is still righteous to him and he sels needed by the fighting fleet- to make a profit on labor as well as patrol craft, tenders, mine layers upon materials. He is entitled to No orator is adroit enough to shuf- and sweepers, repair, hospital, store charge reasonably for the risks he fle out of view the fact that produc- and ammunition ships, colliers, oil- runs, for superintendence and for tion in Russia has been wellnigh ers and transports? How about the his investment. But to do business killed. Except the gold from Czar destroyers and submarines in re- in such a way as to levy tribute on days that the Bolsheviki personally serve? These various classes of labor and capital alike makes futile cling to, and some platinum and ships require 44,896 men. The total efforts to put an end to the building

Curb All Aids to Crime

Once a criminal is in possession of a gun and an automobile he has all the world before him wherein to loot. prospective victim. With the automobile he can put many miles between him and the scene of his crime before pursuit is afoot.

It is clear that new methods of capture must be suited to new methods of crime. This will not be difficult if the police are sufficiently their weapons. There has been no difficulty in its enforcement when the be no difficulty in enforcing it when

Also the vigilant inspection of cars, whether passing or parked, will Washington dispatches feature result in depriving a good many them to safety

It is true that many criminals use

The modern bandit is not any more

Worse Than Higher Fares

In an apparent endeavor to connot heavy. In crowded New York be clear.

There seems little doubt that the lems, in amassing the statistics upon will unite all lines. Continual tinker- room?

intentions of the present Mexican which alone the determination of the ing with new and untried methods government are of the very best, best means of supervision must be of economy by individual lines is worse for the public than an ad-

It is Russia's condition, not TF I could leave my five-room

Every time it begins to rain on That pulls its roof down like a hat the. Criccieth golf course Lloyd About its ancient ears; George goes back to Westminster A house that faces toward the west and gets a new vote of confidence. And draws the twilight to its breast-

Three Men Hold Up Entire Instead of just a fireproof door; Family.-Headline. But the people And ancient mirrors, calm and tall, are getting weary of these vaudeville strong man acts.

An elephant belonging to a circus recently celebrated her 106th birthday. It is needless to say that she If from my bed, on waking I never in her life drank liquor or used tobacco in any form. When the Police Commissioner If I could get too far away announces that New York is the To hear the things my neighbors safest city in the country he care-what class of people it is safe. It is not surprising that the printers in the German Bureau of Affronting eyes and nose; Money Engraving have struck. They If robins sang their mating song, to make enough marks to pay them

More Truth Than Poetry By James J. Montague

one day's wages.

To a Blackbird

What time I tilled the sodden soil Imbedded in it to the knee. And spent with unaccustomed

You came and sang a song to me.
A lovely little song it was—
The kind that only you can

And I was deeply touched, because It seemed to breathe of love,

Each day for many a weary week Your bright and flashing wings were spread While you went playing hide and and spring.

Among the boughs above my High in the branches you would

Until the sun had set, and then—You watched me bid farewell to And sang that charming song

I fancied you were more than

Who might among the skies If thus you haply were inclined To come and sing for me alone.

To give to me what Shelley called Your unpremeditated art My simple, trusting soul en-thralled.

But ah! I little knew your heart!

For when the seeds were in the ground. Before the roots began to stir, To my intense disgust I found

You knew exactly where they were!

You unrepentant little sinner, That gave me such a fool's de-

Was merely grace before your dinner!

Easily Broken The New York Legislature made thousand laws at the last session, but A song of love and love of song most of them were highly perishable. To love you more—all this if you

A Mystery

ing why Germany doesn't pay hers.
(Copyright by James J. Montague)

Fairness to Ulster

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Your editorial in Saturday's Cush senses the coming of spring editors is sadly lacking.

liberty, have no sympathy for the rough, exclusively. bomb-throwing murderers who, with no respect for civil government, conexpected of them

Ocean Grove, N. J., April 2, 1922.

Sir: As a regular reader of The ing that the letter of Robert Stanley

New York, March 31, 1922.

Passed, With Reservations (From Life) Is the place where the censors re-

The Tower

CONTENTMENT

1 flat And buy a house of mellowed years,

If I could have a spacious hall, And rag rugs on the floor; And green, old-fashioned window blinds

Flung open to the questing winds-Could see a range of purple hills, Instead of washing hung to dry That now the prospect fills:

fully neglects to mention for just If, by the walk, red ramblers ran, And hedges marched in well trained

Instead of ash or garbage can had to work for three days in order Instead of cats the whole night long---

If all these gifts should come to me If I should find the perfect home, Where one might dwell serene and

And face the years to come-Unless you came to live there too I'd stay right here in town with you.

Maybe the crime wave has passed its peak. To date none of the Police De-partment's bandit-pursuing flivers has been stolen.

The Mayor has observed the firemen put out another blaze, and we don't understand why the cops don't invite him to watch them thwart a hold-up.

But Think How Clear the Climate Is F. F. V .: The Santa Fe Railroad has issued an advertising folder on Califernia. The introduction is by "John Steven McGroarty, Author of the Mission Play." This paragraph occurs, which seems to me to have a bad case of twist. What say?

"There is a lure in the very name of it, a name that was coined for it out of the golden dreams of that old romancero of Spain in whose visions t appeared long before the galleons of Columbus fared upon the trackless seas in quest of India; long before Jean Rodrigues Cabrillo sailed up from Navidad to the Bay of San Diego, in the far-away year of 1542that euphonious, musical word, 'Kahlee-for-nee-ah,' which, and you shall speak it on any highway or byway of the world, they who hear it shall stop to listen."

"Blackbirds and Peepers" is the caption that heralds a certain firm's advertisement of spring styles for women. The reference to blackbirds seems a little obscure.

TO "THE SUPPLIANT" (In reply to Elizabeth S. Montgomery's sonnet) On woman, in mine hours of ease, Uneasy still and restless, please Compose yourself for but a space, So may I, reading, swiftly embrace The thoughts of lovers worthier far

To sing your praise and hymn your star— Such men as Shelley, Byron, Keats And other lovers of the sweets But found in women such as you Shall sing their wondrous loves anew. Then I'll, returning, bring along A Host in Himself

A few more cuts by Congress, and the army will apprint the army willi

(In Heaven's name; that Now that the world seems to have Philadelphia should not enjoy the coming baseball season.

Sportsman Cush Be it known that J. Throckmorton

Russia's restoration. But the les- what akin to the Interstate Com- into the arms of an officer instead of Agreement" is the clearest and most ardent country clubman. His into the motor they meant to carry concise article on the present Irish seventh heaven of bliss consists in muddle that I ever hope to read. It stalking about the spacious clubhouse shows a keen perception and knowl- of a Sunday, describing to totally bored edge of Ulster's position which in most guests how the club gained possession of the six red and gold banners for If we had an "American association team play that hang above the pianola. be placed with those who don't in public opinion. Neither "nationalifor stolen cars which recovered to combat the farce at present being the last four putting and approaching for the recognition of Ulster's claims" His information as to the winners of their hearts wish a change. Lloyd zation," whatever that may mean, dozens of them in a day. This is a staged by a group of hypenated Irish-contests is deadly accurate. He calls George has contributed more to consistant as "Young MacWhirter." How-The great body of the American peo- ever, Mr. Cush has never played the ple, while respecting a struggle for course, confining his activities to the

F. F. V.: Perhaps you may have no--modern weapons and automobiles. tinue their depredations, despite the ticed that when J. Throckmorton Cush Depriving him of these will go far fact that England and Ulster both have goes out to the links his golf stockings toward ridding the city of his pres- conceded all that could reasonably be are supported by woolen garters with two little tassels hanging below the THOMAS W. WILSON. | cuff of each stocking. J. H. V.

> F. F. V.: When talking with J. Throckmorton Cush the other day he remarked that he was "so glad summer will soon be here," so that he could again "enter the field of sport." Mr. Cush doesn't see how any one can play tennis without wearing a handkerchief tied around his forehead to keep the perspiration out of his eyes. Also, he thinks it quite advisable to wear a leather wristband, as it "gives one so

H. E. VAN S.

Americans are inclined to commercialize things, and that is a great misfortune, Mrs. Asquith announces in her farewell statement. It's true. Meekly we kiss the rod. There are citizens of this country so far gone as to lecture for money and write books of impres-coal mines.

THE OUTLINE OF HISTORY IN FOUR CHAPTERS

I DECLARE I DON'T KNOW WHAT

THE NEXT GENERATION IS

Books and the "Booboisie" By Almer Curtis Sanborn

America is oppressed just now by a And it is an excellent thing that the knew it wasn't art. It wasn't the kind literary aristocracy which is every public has this attitude; it serves to of book that could be seriously diswas under Louis XVI. It is founded on they might lead us. right to decree what real literature is. honest with themselves for a moment, occupied. It is dogmatic and iconoclastic. Its god they would realize that they like to be What better proof is needed than the thrilled, too. Of course, they can get success of "If Winter Comes"? The is a new mode of expression, and in a thrill out of complexes and repres- intelligentsia acclaimed it as a great its search it is becoming incoherent sions which the public can't. It re- book. And did the public fail to apand abstruse. It is a prey to whims quires special training to do that. But preciate it? Considerably more than and fancies. Its present fad is the ap- anything that requires special training 200,000 copies of it have been seil. plication of Freudian teachings to to be understood is not a true reflec- Why? Because the book is a real work literature. This alone, it says, is art. tion of life, and consequently not a of art. Hutchinson had kept in mind And because the public does not ac- real work of art. The public is right the immensity of the social drama and cept this dictum these writers begin in insisting on blood stained carpets presented human beings against the calling names and look upon the public and passionate kisses, because these background of the life in which they s something irremediably stupid.

Probably H. L. Mencken, with his

are a part of all life and literature. lived, instead of losing his lay reader in the quagmire of psychological there. as something irremediably stupid.

whit as tyrannical and self-centered keep the literary nobility in check, cussed among friends. The "boobery" Otherwise, there is no knowing to would give up its Laura Jean Libbys in its way as the nobility of France what narrow depths of metaphysics and its Nick Carters in a minute if the assumption that it has the divine If these dictators would only be Thackerays and Stevensons to keep it done as much as any one to create this calling down upon them the maledic- istence. overbearing caste. It tries to make tions of the aristocracy. There at least If the novelists the public the scapegoat for its own they found an appeal to the emotions, sneering at the public and take it in shortcomings and blames it for the crude if you like, but universal. They partnership, the quality of our fiction fact that we have so few literary wallowed in adventurous thrills and would be considerably improved. masterpieces. It sneers that the pub-indulged in a sensuous debauch. But is a combination of the two points of lic wants only to be thrilled, that it do not make the mistake of thinking view that produces real art. After all has no appreciation of the intellectual. that the public considered it a great art is intended for the delectation As a matter of fact, the public does book. It didn't. Its attitude while the human race, so why try to igner want to be thrilled and it does refuse reading it was the same as that of a it? With a few rare exceptions, pop-local color and style crammed down Paris peep show. its throat without pepper and salt. The public was ashamed of it. It Homer.

there were enough Shakespeares and literature ever since the days of

New York, April 3, 1922.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

The Men of Fox Hills

Sir: I would like through you columns to voice a plea for the ex-service men who are being sent from of these men are gathered togeth

What Readers Are Thinking

Bandit Remedies To the Editor of The Tribune.

I suggest two remedies:

makes it almost impossible for lawabiding citizens to own weapons of defense, but which does not hamper robbers and thugs in the smallest degree. 2. The whipping post. If every robber and hold-up man were subjected To the Editor of The Tribune. munity in which people are not safe in the railroads.

party, but next fall I will vote for the ning about 75 per cent capacity at and bring that cheer and company legislators who are not afraid to in- present only because we are able to ship from the outside world troduce the laws which we need so undersell our union competitors. We they so much appreciate. They all GEORGE D. BRADFORD. New York, April 3, 1922.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: The revision of the Treaty of are so flagrant a breach of international scale.

lead to serious estrangements be- | countered since the great Debs strik tween peoples, and in the end to fur- in 1895.

America will be doing no more than a clear recognition of the real cause of which we have read for several the world expects and her own honor at issue do all in your power to per months past, the question arises, What demands if she informs the Allied suade Congress to search for a mean powers that the betrayal of the Arme- to reduce to the consumer the cost of nian people was not one of the objects distribution and eventual cost 1. Repeal of the Sullivan law, which for which she sent her men overseas.

Boston, Mass., March 31, 1922.

From a Coal Owner

Our camps are probably as good they will not be forgotten, but the I am not affiliated with any political as any in the country. We are run- some will remember to go to see them have over one hundred thousand tons need more than ever the friendly walks pared with chauffeurs, railroad employees, gardeners, factory labor, do-Sir: The revision of the Treaty of mestic employees, stenographers and Sèvres in favor of the Turks by the child labor of all descriptions, our Sevres in favor of the Turks of child labor of all descriptions, our Allied ministers in conference at Paris men are underpaid. For the risk they involves more than a betrayal of a par- the public has got the idea that the ticular people. It amounts flatly to a coal owner and operator is making fabthe operators' and the miners' prob- eral plan for transit control which view the movies called the objection trying to get back into the nice dry some degree righted, cannot fail to present strike is going to be the most half of the human race.

animadversions on the "boobery," has to "The Sheik," for example, thereby rics on one particular phase of ex-

Sir: In view of the numerous hold- ther conflicts. ups, burglaries and similar outrages their homes?

Armenian Charges Betrayal

repudiation of obligations and engage- ulous profits; this is not the case.

Before things get confused beyond to fifty lashes on entering and leaving Sir: I am a director in a company Fox Hills Hospital to various sansto prison the incentive to steal might which operates non-union mines in Vir- riums and hospitals throughout the drop considerably. True, this seems ginia. We have the very best grade of country. barbarous, but is it a civilized com- coal; in fact, sell most of our coal to I trust that wherever two or the > of coal stored and would gladly sell of the women, who will be to it to any one at $2 a ton. Our miners are not overpaid. Com- been.

G. H. PAPAZIAN

and the violation of the solemn pledges made to the Armenian people pledges made to the Armenian people the coal miner is way down in the Sir: Grantland's Rice's the coal miner is way down in the Sir: Grantland's Rice's honor as to necessitate protest from The coal owner and operator to-day is in the same class as the public The action of the Allied ministers utility owner and operator. Somehow fourth Book of Virgil's Eneld:

A FOX HILLS GODMOTHER Brooklyn, April 2, 1922. Ever Changeable Sir: Grantland's Rice's quantities "Who wrote the greatest line?" but attracted my attention. I would His offer for consideration a line from the what the Fox Hills godmothers bare

RIETA D. NAIRNE,

"Varium et mutabile semper femina In my opinion it would be very di cult to find a line in any langu ments made with America upon her Ask the coal purchaser what he which can even approach this coal Three more days like yesterday, and entrance into the war. Such gross dis- must pay for our coal delivered, and expressing so clearly and concisely the shafts will be blocked by workers regard of elementary justice, unless in you will find the real reason why the dominant characteristic of the

F. F. V. | rankle in the heart of humanity and to | serious strike the country has ever en- | Boston, Mass., March 30, 1922.